THE FIZZ WENT TO THEIR FEET.—An admiring crowd stood on the corner of Seventh and Twenty-fourth street, New York, just as last week was turning into this week and watched three pretty girls execute a dance. The girls glided backward and forward, circled about each other, and performed fancy steps in time to a lively waltz which they hummed. At the end of each measure three little feet shot into the air, there was a flashing of indefinite drapery, and the crowd cheered approval. Livelier and more intricate the dance became, and the crowd was momentarily increasing when a policeman at the west Thirtieth street station broke into the circle. Here, here! What's this?" asked the policeman. "Just a few private theatricals," said one of the girls. "Very few and far between, this kind is," she added, kicking a toe in the atmosphere so close to the policeman's ear that he jumped back hastily. "Keep your feet where they belong, and go home," he advised when he regained his composure. "Not till the show is over," was the reply, whereupon the three girls were taken to the station house. At Jefferson Market Court Sunday they said they were Ada Carnes, 18 years old; Frances Trey, 21 years old, and Katie McPhillips, 17 years old. All refused to give their addresses. "We didn't mean anything Judge," said Miss Carnes. "You see we'd been drinking a little of the fizziest kind of fizzy water, and that went to our feet, I'm sure," she added demurely. "that I didn't mean to do any high kicking when I started out." The Judge held the prisoners for further examination.—N. Y. Sun.

[By request we reproduce the following from the edition of the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE of November 5, 1892.]

An Open Letter.

Mr. C. C. Moreno, a well-known Italian resident of Washington, sends the following to the GAZETTE for publication:

To the Hon. Messrs. Carter, Clarkson and Hobart, of the Republican National Committee:

Gentlemen:—The Italian vote is lost for the republican party in New York, and all over the United States, on account of the deplorable blunder which your three gentlemen have made in the choice of men for the formation of the Italian republican committee.

Col. de Verdi, the chairman of said Italian republican committee, is totally unknown to the Italians in New York and elsewhere in this country, and the self-styled "Counts," no account, barber Verdi and Oldrini, of Washington, D. C., who are members of the committee, are very unfavorably known by the Italians in the United States on account of their close personal relations with the cruel and infamous Italian padroni traffickers in Italian slaves of both sexes and all ages between classic Italy and free America.

Moreover, the two bogus "Counts," Ananias Verdi and Oldrini, are adherents to the Vallosio-Ferraris-Palma gang, or Mafia, of green goods swindlers, with the annexed clever trick of the value full of gold, which turns into lead next day, when the deceived Italian victim opens it.

This is an old trick but continually played secretly and successfully in defiance of the police, for many long years all over United States, by the Vallosio-Ferraris-Palma gang or Mafia, with which thousands and tens of thousands of credulous and unfortunate Italian laborers, especially those who are ready to repatriate, are daily, without remorse and without pity, robbed of their accumulated money derived from decades of hard labor, sufferings and privations. Hence the source of so many crimes, sorrow and tears, among the Italians on this vast continent.

These are the causes why the self-styled Counts de Stufatto Verdi and Oldrini, members of the Italian republican committee, are unfavorably known by the Italians in this republic, and thus the prestige of the republican party is lower in the estimation of the Italian voters, who are now all solid for the democratic national ticket, Cleveland and Stevenson.

The two self-styled "Counts" de Stufatto Verdi and Oldrini with the "Count" and "General of Contraband Louis" Palma di Cesnola, are bosom friends, political advisers and companions of Mr. Fava, the shameless miser and incompetent Italian minister in Washington. Mr. Fava in the Presidential election of 1892 instigating the Italian voters to cast their votes for the republican candidate made the same grave error and impropriety of Lord Sackville West, the British minister, in 1888.

The Italians in America, in spite of the back down of the wrongly-informed, timid and blundering King and Ministers of Italy, will never forget nor forgive the unvindicated massacre of their brothers on the 14th day of March 1891, in New Orleans, and will never admit the cavils nor accept the humiliating proposals for adjustment from President Harrison, the candidate of the national republican party.

HOW WE REACH PERFECTION.

We are having a big run on our $3 PANTS, cut to order and tailor-made. They are good enough for anybody, and it doesn't astonish us in the least. They've hit the nail on the head as nothing else in that line ever did before. What's the secret of their success? There isn't any secret about it. There can't be any secret about what everybody knows, and that is the fact that they are made at a price below any in price. Is the run subsiding? Not a bit of it. On the contrary, the tide is rising. This, of all others, is the time to buy. You never make any mistake when you go with the rising tide.
